TO SIR WITH LOVE

Dear Mr. Barolak:
Professor
Teacher
Humanitarian
Man For All Seasons

You never left us because we your students asked that night take you and cut you out in little stars since we knew you would make the face of heaven so fine that all the world would be in love with night . . .

And if by chance we could paint your portrait
On some distant horizon
We would sketch you upon the evening sky
Against a canvas of stars
And with a soft glow to frame your face,
All the world would look upon you in awe
To say, "This was a man."

With Love,
The Class of Nineteen Hundred and Eighty

That through our gentle guidance
Your dreams may take on new meaning
And inspire you to embrace life

Is the same force that Keeps an athlete motivated
Through painful injuries,
long, hard practices,
severe dicipline,
anguish, sweat and tears.

And yet this force comes back to a man Making him strong enough to Face any challenge head on.

And, even so, it cannot reveal itself in
The tape on one's ankles nor
The sweat on his brow.

This force, pride, can only be seen
In a man's eyes.

Whether moving mountains or becoming champions
Let the pride you feel Shine on
In your eyes forever.

Dear Herb,

Just thought we would drop a line and let you know that we are thrilled by your outstanding performance in basketball.

Your dedication and determination have won you many commemorable titles. You have been named All-American-Coach & Athlete - 1980, All-State-AAA, McDonalds All-American Honorable Mention, All-Northeastern Ohio - 1st, U.S. All-Star team, 1st All-City, League Leading Rebounder, and MVP - Chaney, 1979-1980.

You have combined hours of practice and love for the game with a rare charisma that only a true champion can possess to capture the hearts and admiration of your classmates here at Chaney. Herb, you're one in a million.

Dear John,

The best day . . . today.
The greatest mistake . . . giving up.
The worst bankrupt . . . the soul that has lost its enthusiasm.
The best teacher . . . the one who makes you want to learn.
The greatest need . . . common sense.
The best gift . . . forgiveness.
The best memory . . . you.

ALL THAT
JAZZ

"We Do It All For You!"

A long line of bright smiles, endless legs kicking to the sky, and the sparkle of dazzling red and white . . . the swish of the fringed vests keeping to the music, precision in every movement.

The applause . . .

Awake at 8:00 a.m., curlers, pulled muscles, laughter, tears, shouts of "Do it again!", friendship,

Love . . .

A NIGHT
TO REMEMBER

From here
We look back
To the realities and illusions
Of our yesterdays.
And as we reminisce
The knowledge that our dreams,
Desires and loves
Can never be lost or forgotten
Illuminates our souls,
Whispers to our hearts
And brings them together.
All our moments bright or dim
Which have passed like
dreams,
Live on as thoughts in the mind
And impulses in the heart
To become memories
As we move from here to eternity.

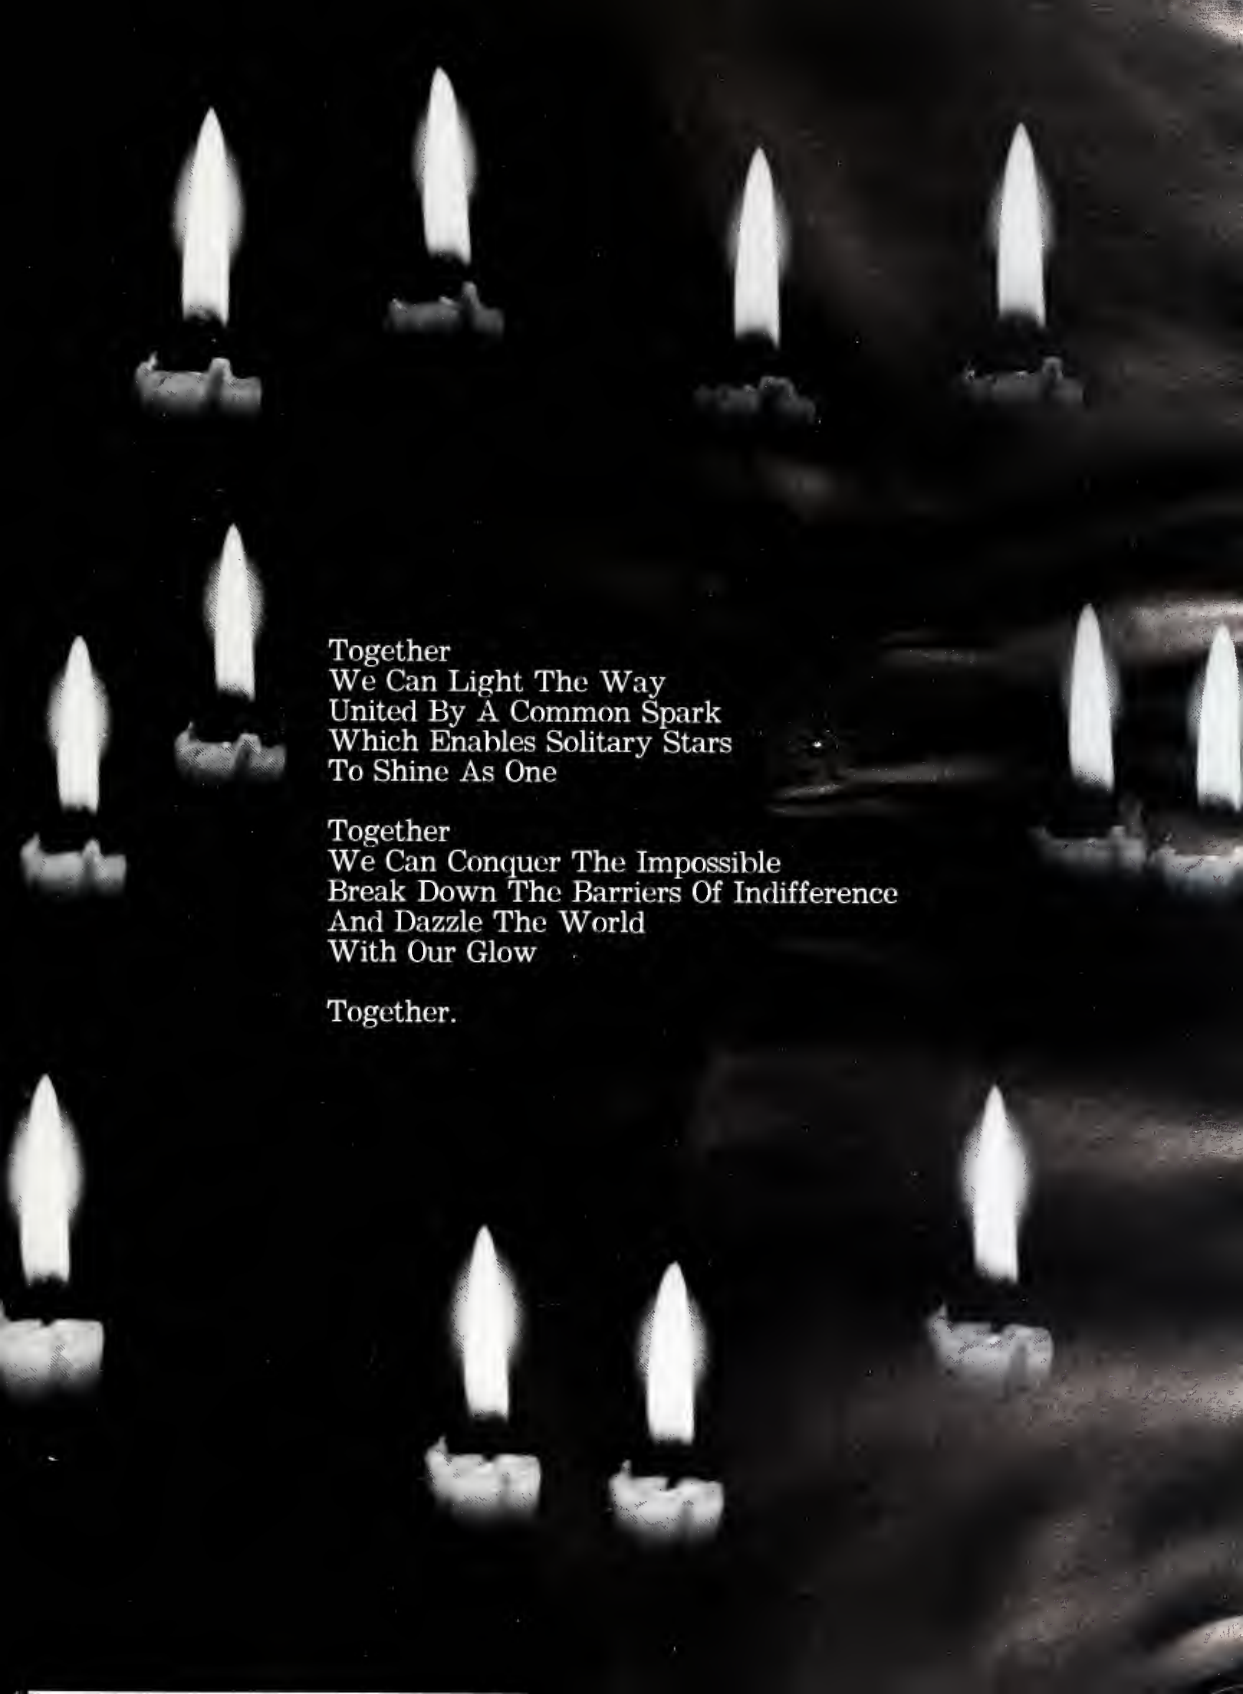
FROM HERE TO ETERNITY



Together
We Can Light The Way
United By A Common Spark
Which Enables Solitary Stars
To Shine As One

Together
We Can Conquer The Impossible
Break Down The Barriers Of Indifference
And Dazzle The World
With Our Glow

Together.

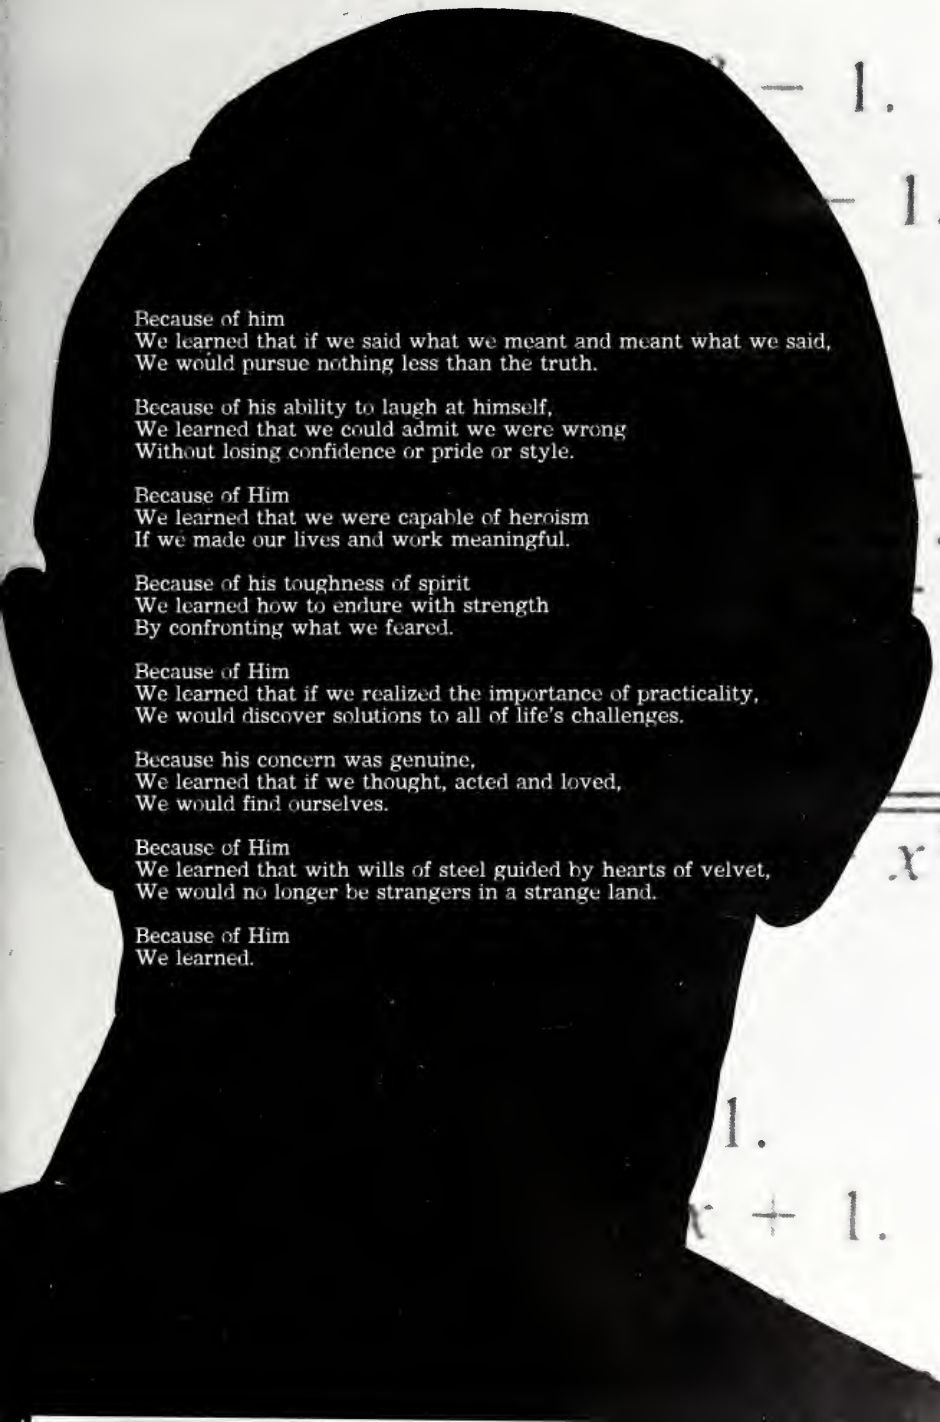
BECAUSE OF HIM



Because of him
We learned that if we said what we meant and meant what we said,
We would pursue nothing less than the truth.

Because of his ability to laugh at himself,
We learned that we could admit we were wrong
Without losing confidence or pride or style.

Because of Him
We learned that we were capable of heroism
If we made our lives and work meaningful.

Because of his toughness of spirit
We learned how to endure with strength
By confronting what we feared.

Because of Him
We learned that if we realized the importance of practicality,
We would discover solutions to all of life's challenges.

Because his concern was genuine,
We learned that if we thought, acted and loved,
We would find ourselves.

Because of Him
We learned that with wills of steel guided by hearts of velvet,
We would no longer be strangers in a strange land.

Because of Him
We learned.

COWBOYS

As the lights dim,
There is an air of silent anticipation.
Hearts pounding, tension building,
Suspense soaring to ultimate heights . . .

And yet, we await the final outcome,
The most critical second
Leaving all effort suspended
As the audience makes its final decision.

Then, in an atmosphere of intense stillness
One clap is heard and then another
Until thunderous applause
Captures in a single heartbeat
The euphoria within our souls.

And, once again
We leave off where we began,
For the show must go on . . .

THE TALENTED PEOPLE WHO PUT IT ALL TOGETHER TO GIVE YOU ANOTHER REASON TO LOVE CHS

Combine vitality, imagination, love and the desire that you live your film rather than watch it and the result is a theatrical grand effect which has transformed Chaney High School into the best showplace around and you into the magic dreams are made of.

And, Dear Class of 89, if you care about real talent, sensitivity, genuine artistry and young people doing what they believe in and reaching out out to touch you with heart, then watch Mark Barbato, Janet Matasic and Beverly Borak's careers. These stars have a shimmering future.
